

Evan Black's Hymn

"A Celebration of Family and Remembrance"

Matthew C. Heumann
1990

American Spiritual style Funeral / Memorial Hymn

1.- Come my child - ren, stand be -side me so that I may part;

2.- Do not miss me, do not cry, I'll not be far a- way,

3.- Spend a mo -ment each day with me, let me share your woes,

4.- Tell them of the times we've had and all the love we've shared, so

1.- Let me give to you the love I've held with -in my heart.

2.- close your eyes and I'll be there on each and ev -ery day

3.- tell me how your life goes on, and how my grand- child grows.

4.- when they're grown and have their own, they'll know that I'll be there.

CHORUS: Cast a -side your sor -rows as I've cast a -side my pain; Remem -ber all we've shared in til its time to share a -gain

*Evan Black of Salt Lake City, Utah was a humble and religious man; a devoted father, grandfather, and great-grandfather who passed away in 1990 at the age of 81. He is survived by generations that span the country.
